PLEDGE

" India is my country. All Indians are my brothers and sisters.

I love my country and I am proud of its rich and varied heritage. I shall always strive to be worthy of it.

I shall give my parents, teachers and all elders respect and treat everyone with courtesy.

To my country and my people, I pledge my devotion. In their well-being and prosperity alone lies my happiness".

“A good head and good heart are always a formidable combination. But when you add to that a literate tongue or pen, then you have something very special.”

– Nelson Mandela

“Educate your children to self-control, to the habit of holding passion and prejudice and evil tendencies subject to an upright and reasoning will, and you have done much to abolish misery from their future and crimes from society.”

– Benjamin Franklin

NATIONAL SYMBOLS

NATIONAL FLAG :

NATIONAL flag is a horizontal tricolour of deep saffron (Kesari) at the top, white in the middle and dark green at the bottom in equal proportion. Ratio of the width of the flag to its length is two to three. In the centre of the white band is a navy blue wheel which represents the Charkha. Its design is that of the wheel which appears on the abacus of the Sarnath Lion Capital of Ashoka. Its diameter approximates to the width of the white band and it has 24 spokes.

Design of the national flag was adopted by the Constituent Assembly of India on 22nd July , 1947. Its use and display are regulated by code.

STATE EMBLEM :

State emblem is an adaptation from the Sarnath Lion Capital of Ashoka. In the original, there are four lions, standing back to back, mounted on an abacus with a frieze carrying sculptures in high relief of an elephant, a galloping horse, a bull and a lion separated by intervening wheels over a bell-shaped lotus. Carved out of a single block of polished sandstone, the capital is crowned by the Wheel of the Lawn (Darma Charkha).

In the state emblem adopted by the Government of India on 26 January 1950, only three lions are visible, the fourth being hidden from view. The wheel appears in relief in the centre of the abacus with a bull on right and a horse on left and the outlines of other wheels on extreme right and left. The bell-shaped lotus has been omitted. The words Satyameva Jayate from Mundaka Upanishad, meaning 'Truth Alone Triumphs' are inscribed below the abacus in the Devanagari script.

NATIONAL ANTHEM :

The song Jana-gana-mana, composed by Rabindranath Tagore was adopted by the Constituent Assembly as the National Anthem of India on 24 January 1950. It was first sung on 27 December 1911 at the Calcutta Session of the Indian National Congress. The complete song consists of five stanzas. It reads :

Jana-gana-mana-adhinayak, jaya he Bharata-bhagya-vidhata.

Punjab-Sindhu-Gujarat-Maratha
Dravida-Utkala-Banga

Vindhya-Himachala-Yamuna-Ganga
Uchchala-Jaladhi-taranga

Tava shubha name jage,
tava shubha asisa mange,

Gahe tava jaya gatha,
Jana-gana-mana-adhinayak, jaya he
Bharata-bhagya-vidhata.

Jaya he, Jaya he, Jaya he,
Jaya Jaya Jaya, Jaya he.

Playing time of the full version of the National Anthem is approximately 52 seconds. A short version consisting of first and last line of the stanza (playing time approximately 20 seconds) is also played on certain occasions. The following is Tagore's English rendering :

Thou art the ruler of minds of all people,
Thou dispenser of India's destiny.

Thy name rouses the hearts of Punjab, Sind
Gujarat and Maratha
Of the Dravid and Orissa and Bengal;

It echoes in the hills of the Vindhyas and Himalayas, mingles in the music of Jamuna and Ganges and is chanted by the waves of the Indian Sea.

They pray for thy blessings and sing thy praise.

The saving of all people waits in thy hand,
thou dispenser of India's destiny.

Victory, victory, victory to thee.

NATIONAL SONG :

The song Vande Matram composed by Bankimchandra Chatterji, was a source of inspiration to the people in their struggle for freedom. It has equal status with Jana-gana-mana. The first political occasion when it was sung was the 1896 session of the Indian National Congress. The following is text of its first stanza :

Vande Mataram!
Sujalam, suphalam, malayajam shitalam,
Shasyashyamalam, Mataram!

Shubhrajyothsna pulakitayaminim,
Phullakusumita drumadala shobhinim,

Suhasinim sumadhura bhashinim, Sukhadam varadam, Mataram!.

English translation of the stanza rendered by Sri Aurobindo in prose is :

I bow to thee, Mother, richly-watered, richly-fruited,

cool with the winds of the south,
dark with the crops of the harvests,

The Mother!

Her nights rejoicing in the glory of the moonlight,
her lands clothed beautifully with her trees in flowering bloom, sweet of laughter, sweet of speech,

The Mother, giver of boons, giver of bliss.

NATIONAL CALENDAR :

National Calendar based on the Saka Era with Chaitra as its first month and a normal year of 365 days was adopted from 22 March 1957 along with Gregorian calendar for the following official purposes (i) Gazette of India, (ii) news broad casting by All India Radio, (iii) calendar issued by the Government of India and (iv) Government communications addressed to the members of public.

Dates of the national calendar have a permanent correspondence with dates of Gregorian calendar : I Chaitra falling on 22nd March normally and on 21st March in leap year.

NATIONAL ANIMAL :

The magnificent tiger Panthera tigris (Linnaeus), the national animal of India, is a rich coloured well-stripped animal, with a short coat. The combination of grace, strength, ability and enormous power has earned the tiger great respect and high esteem. Out of eight races of the species known, the Indian race, the Royal Bengal Tiger, is found throughout the country except the north-western region and also in the neighbouring countries, Nepal, Bhutan and Bangladesh. The tiger occupies a variety of habitats from dry open jungles, humid ever-green forests to mangrove swamps.

To check the dwindling population of tigers in India, which came down to just 1,827 in 1972, a massive conservation programme was initiated in April 1973, known as the 'Project Tiger'. This project aims to maintain a viable population of tigers in India for scientific, economic, aesthetic, cultural and ecological values. Since then, the tiger population has shown a gradual increase and the census of 1993 puts the tiger population of the country at 3,750. So far, 23 tiger reserves have been established in the country under project, covering an area of 33, 046 sq. kms.

NATIONAL BIRD :

The Indian peacock Pavo Cristatus (Linnaeus) is a colourful, swan-sized bird with a fan-shaped crest of feathers on its head, a white patch under the eye and a long-slender neck. The male of the species is more colourful than the female with glistening blue breast and neck and a spectacular bronze-green train of around 200 elongated feathers. The Female is brownish, slightly smaller than the male and it lacks the train. The elaborate courtship dance of the male by fanning out the tail and quivering the feathers is a gorgeous sight.

The peacock is widely found in the Indian sub-continent from the south and east of the Indus river, Jammu and Kashmir, east to Assam, south to Mizoram and the whole of the Indian peninsula. The peacock enjoys full protection from the people as it is never molested on religious and sentimental grounds. It is fully protected under the Indian Wildlife (Protection) Act, 1972.

Mahatma International School (C.B.S.E)

Mahatma Education Society, the parent body of Mahatma School and Junior College is an institution founded on the rock foundation of the values and principles conceived, cherished and followed by the great mahatmas of our soil. Truly speaking, the cardinal principles of a good and meaningful life are universally the same. Thus, Mahatma Education Society's nomenclature is not a coincidence but a well-conceived symbolism for its ethos, values and objectives, M.E.S.'s journey from a small school in a tiny shed at Chembur to a world class education complex at New Panvel, is a saga of sacrifice and struggle. The phenomenal progress of Mahatma Education Society is the outcome of the far-sighted vision of its founding father and Chairman Late Principal M.P. Pillai, the missionary zeal, global outlook, undaunted spirit and dynamic leadership of its Executive Secretary and C.E.O. Dr. K.M. Vasudevan Pillai, the enlightened guidance and inspiration of the joint secretary Dr. Daphne Pillai, and the unstinted co-operation and support of the staff, parents and patrons.

'Local Action and Global Option' is the motto of Dr. K.M. Vasudevan Pillai, the Chief Executive Officer of Mahatma Education Society. Under his dynamic leadership, Mahatma Education Society has taken a leap into the direction of realizing his vision and mission of enabling the younger generation of Indian Community to have an access to the latest and the best Global initiatives, concepts and developments in the field of education. Transcending the boundaries of the State Board Education System. MES has set up a CBSE school from the academic year i.e. 2009-10 as a sister institution of Mahatma School of Academics & Sports with a different nomenclature i.e. Mahatma International School (CBSE) housed in the newly built multi-storey building in sector 8, Khanda Colony and equipped with the latest amenities conducive to ideal teaching and learning activities.

The function of education is to teach one to think intensively and to think critically. Intelligence plus character that is the goal of true education.

-- Martin Luther King, Jr.

Anyone who stops learning is old, whether this happens at twenty or eighty. Anyone who keeps on learning not only remains young, but becomes constantly more valuable regardless of physical capacity.

-- Harvey Ullman

A teacher affects eternity, he can never tell where his influence stops.

-- Henry B. Adams

By education, I mean an all round drawing of the best in child and man in body, mind and spirit.

-- Mahatma Gandhi

A teacher affects eternity, he can never tell where his influence stops

Henry B. Adams

“ The world of knowledge is a world without boundaries, and for those who avail of its opportunities there is unlimited growth and prosperity.”

“ The real power of education is when you can go beyond yourself and touch the lives of others” .

“ A true teacher should be younger than the youngest, wiser than the wisest, and more resolved and tenacious than the most duty-conscious parent”

Dr. K.M. Vasudevan Pillai in Education

Replacing the conventional role of the teacher with concept of a mentor

A mentor is one who has continuous engagement with a student's academic and personal growth and who works at an individual level to develop the student from all angles: personal, psychological, emotional, mental, physical, aesthetic, and spiritual.

The role of a mentor is far more complex and demanding than that of the teacher for he or she has to teach, advise, support prescribe, inspire, improvise, probe, listen, relate, clarify, and affirm.

The mentor must perform as a role model, working with empathy and vision to create citizens of the future

PRAYER SONG

Eternal God/ Creator of all / I firmly believe/that I am now /in thy presence/ I adore/ thy divine majesty / and I ask of thee / to enlighten my mind / that I may know Thee/ more clearly/and to move my heart/ that I may love Thee / above all things/ and my neighbour / for thy sake / help me / that I may never/in my thoughts / word or deeds / offened against / thy holy law

PRAYER SONG

Come bless the lord	O test and see that all you servants of the lord	the lord is good - 3 who stands by night	blessed is the man who in the house of the lord	trust in him lift up your hands	he lifted me up from in the holy place	the miry clay and bless the lord - 2	and set my feet on the rock to stay he put a song in my heart today
	a song of praise a song
